Mr Francis will move-1. That this Board is at all times coopensible for the proper segregation of persons suffering from infectious, con-tagious or communicable diseases and for the disinfection and purification of their dwellings and clothing and of any boats or other vohicles in which they may have travelled. 2. That this Board is, whenever any part of the Colony is threatened or affected with any formidable opidemic. responsible for, and invested by ordinance with the fullest powers for dealing with opidemic, endomic and contagious diseases of all sorts with a view to their prevention or mitigation, and has among other things to provide suitable accommodation, medical aid, and medicines.

3. That the Board has not now at its disposal or under its own control any place where sufferers from epidemic. endemie or contagious diseases can be segregated and treated either in case of an epidemic or of aporadic small-nox cases at the Government Civil Hospital is insufficient as to extent and is in itself, from its position in the centre of a densely populated neighbourhood, a source of danger to the Oulony. 6. That the small-pox wards in the Tung Wah Hospital are wholly inadequate.

. That the provision made for treating are a grave source of danger from their position and surroundings and ought to be closed up. 6. That the Hygeia is entirely unanitable for use as an Epidemic Hospital in connection with the city and aub. urbs, and ought to be used solely for Quarantine purposes and in connection with the shipping.

7. That the Hygera is uscless for any purpose unless titted up and provided with a Medical Staff of some kinds 8. That the Board re-affirms the Resolutions passed on the 13th March 1888 as to the urgent need for an Epidemic Hospital in a suburban site and for the prevention in future of the treatment in Hospitals in the town of persons diseases. 9. That the Board re-affirmathe opinion express d by it at its Meeting on the Slat May, 1888, as to the requirements an Epidemic Hospital should fulfil, and demands from the Government, the immediate construction of such an Hos. pital and its transfer to the Board and its officers, to enable them to fulfil the duties imposed on them by the Public Health Ordinauce 1887.

Paper packing cases are indestructible, apparently, and the saving they effect in freight is enormous. Thousands of dollars are already invested in this comparatively new industry, and a new company, with $1,250,000 capital, has been organized to introduce paper boards into other lines. Experiments have been made with buggy wagons and other things where lightness is needed, and paper flooring in lieu of boards will soon be heard of. A STRANGE CASE OF ENFORCED MARRIAGE. -Ayoung American lady, named Cooper, sought the aid of the Divorce Court on Tuesday to annul her marriage with her cousin, a resident in New York, named Crane. She said he asked her one day in July 1888 to accompany him to St. Paul's Cathedral. On the way he took her into St. Press. Bride's Church, and they were married. The petitioner declared that she did not know what they were doing at the time, and she believed noring was used. He left her immediately efter the ceremony, and she had never seen him since. Miss Cooper's solitold him that he married the girl for her money, and when he learned that she had less than he supposed, he did not care a was dismissed by Mr Justice Collins, who the marriage, in a state of physical and mental prostration, nor had there been any exercise of coercion.

Dr Fulcher great future before it. found on examining her that, with the exception of a 'weak heart,' her physical condition was good, but she had been suffering for some time from headaches, palpitation, and sleeplessness. On being interrogated with regard to tea-drinking, she said she had been in the habit of taking a large quantity, that she had given it up, but had recently resumed the habit in consequence of her troubles. Dr. Fulcher was of opinion that the prisoner was the subject of melancholia, and he expressed the belief that the taking of tea in excess tended to undermine the constitution. The powerful effect of alcohol in excess as a nerve poison is a matter of daily experi-That many of the allments from which women suffer are at least aggravated if not excited by excessive indulgence in tea-not as an infusiou, as it ought to be, but as a decoction—is equally well known; and although we are not prepared to admit that this habit would actually induce a condition of melancholia, there is little doubt that in a woman of a neurotic t mperament, especially if her food were delicient in quantity and of poor quality, the use of this beverage in excess would be one of the factors in producing and pernotasting a condition of mental instability. GREMAN VIEW OF THE BUTTISH ARMY. t is as well that we should see ourselves as others see us. We have received a series of letters which have lately appeared in the Militar Ze tung from a military correspondent, describing military life in England. The writer at eaks very well of our cavalry, men and horses. Both are good he says, but he thinks that far too much time is wasted on polish, which, in the case | of vonng soldiers, only wearies. As regards our Horse Artillery, he considers the horses as the finest in the world for the H. P. Wadman, H. Wadman, A. H. Chi purpose, and as showing unmistakable evi dence of the care with which they are fed and groomed; but here again he holds that too much stress is laid on appearance, and he questions whether either men or horses days, and no doubt has received every $42,000, that ought to have been received would stand the hard usage which is exacted from German artillery during the summer exercises and manogueres. As a rule. he has nothing but praise to bestow upon artillery : but he attaches grave significance to the recent reported cases of insubordination, which he considers due more to the want of touch between officers and men than to the spread of Socialistic ideas. The organisation, he thinks, is faulty, and the big regiment,' quite out of accord with modern ideas of organisation. Of our infantry he does not speak with any great amount of enthusias . and he lava stress on its absurd organisation also. He is of opinion that the higher and best-known military authorities have shown themselves completely out of a mpathy with the feelings and sympathies of the majority of the regimental officers, which accounts for much that is wrong. The British soldier, in fact, is spoken of in high terms of praise, In a bright number of Cassell's Magazine but there is throughout a general feeling we find an amusing little article upon the of contempt expressed for ' military adminextraordinary names with which some cruel istrators who have shown themselves inparents burden their children, from which capable of appreciating esprit de corps and the glorious traditions of the Army.'-Army and Navy Gazette.

Skeels to join the Board of Directors in July 1891, and that he accepted the invitation and joined the Board and as a director attended a Board meeting; to the best of deponent's belief the defendant Maclean was still a director. The deponent further stated that if the manager of the Hotel were to be dismissed as was contemplated by the defendants the company would sustain serious loss and

Mr Francis said the application was in one sense peculiar. The rule of the Court of equity was of course not to interfere with the internal management or affairs of duly registered companies any ordinary possibility the shareholders could help themselves. The first idea was that everything in connection with this company could be put right by calling an extraordina y general meeting, but this could not be done without considerable delay and the interests of the company would suffer in the meantime. One of the first questions that would be raised at such a meeting would naturally be who was qualified to vote, a question | which Mr Fcaser Smith-who would be chairman -was hardly the proper person to decide, especially if the question referred to his own qualification. He understood that Mr Fraser Smith contended that one fashion or another he had paid in full for his shares, that the company was indebted to him to an extent which entitled him to consider his shares as fully paid up. He claimed a large sum as director's fees, but by a resolution of the directors they agreed not to take their regulation fees under the articles of association, but to accept $100 in full of all remuneration. Before Mr Fraser Smith went to Australia, recently, he sent an to him as Acting Secretary for a month, which sums were paid to him. That claim was therefore entirely unfounded. That was also a question that would be raised at any meeting under his presidency and the main object of the plaintiffs was that these points should be settled at a meeting called under the direction of the Court and presid-
